Honor Code

Please be familiar with Rice University's Honor Code [http://honor.rice.edu]. Plagiarism will not be tolerated and will result in disciplinary action and/or an automatic failure of the course. Plagiarism is the use of someone else's work without citation and includes, but is not limited to: failing to note citations, copying and pasting from online or elsewhere, giving incorrect information about the source of a quote, failing to cite when using ideas or concepts taken from another text, turning in any portion of someone else's work as your own. If you have any questions about plagiarism, please refer to the Honor Code or contact me directly.

Disability Policy

Students with documented disabilities that require academic accommodation may see me during the first two weeks of class to discuss the matter and arrange any necessary accommodations. Any arrangements made will be kept strictly confidential. Students with disabilities will also need to contact the office of Disability Support Services in the Ley Student Center.
